FRANCE IS THE GUEST OF HONOUR AT INTERNATIONAL BOOK FAIR IN ALGIERS-----France and its authors are, for the first time, the guests of honour at the International Book Fair of Algiers. This fair, which this year celebrates its twentieth edition, is the most important event dedicated to books in Algeria and a reference event throughout the region.-----

"This choice illustrates the exceptional quality of relations between our two countries and the density of our links in the field of culture and literature. Over sixty authors, publishers, academics and French filmmakers participating at the show, including Mathias Århard, Laurent Gaude, Caryl Ferey, Sophie de Closets, Nicole Garcia, Alexandre Arcady or Benjamin Stora. Ms. Fleur Pellerin, Minister of Culture and Communication, attended October 28 the opening of the exhibition with the Algerian prime minister. This event illustrates the richness of cooperation between our two countries in the book sector, on which the Embassy of France and the French institute for several years conducting substantive work."Official statement Diplomacy
